

Houston Arts and Media
Neighbor to Neighbor Oral History Project
INTERVIEW AGREEMENT

The purpose of the Neighbor to Neighbor Oral History Project is to gather and preserve historical evidence about life, events, buildings and history in the older neighborhoods of Houston, TX by means of a tape-recorded interview. Tape recordings and transcripts resulting from such interviews become part of the archives of the Houston Public Library's Houston Metropolitan Research Collection, Houston, Texas. This material will be made available for historical and other academic research and publication by interested parties, including members of the interviewee's family. The material gathered and transcribed will also be used in Houston history books to be produced by Houston Arts and Media, a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization. The material will not be used for commercial gain.

We, the undersigned, have read the above and voluntarily offer Houston Arts and Media, and subsequently the Houston Public Library, full use of the information contained on tape recordings and in transcripts of these oral history interviews. In view of the historical value of this research material, we hereby assign rights, title and interest pertaining to it to Houston Arts and Media.
